St. James's, October 31.

YEsterday being the Birth-Day of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, the celebrating it was deferred till this Day, when there was a very numerous and ſplendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction; and at Night there were Illuminations and other Publick Demonſtrations of Joy.

The following Addreſſes have been preſented to his Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, the Mayor Elect, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Sheriffs Elect, Deputy-Lieutenants, Gentlemen, Council-houſe-men, principal Traders and Inhabitants of the City of Coventry; preſented to his Majeſty by Adolphus Oughton, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Lord Privy Seal, and Recorder of the ſaid City.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, free Burgeſſes, and other principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helſtone in the County of Cornwall; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Godolphin, Cofferer of his Majeſty's Houſhold, and Recorder of the ſaid Borough.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Juſtices of the Peace, Aldermen, Grand-Jury, Freeholders and principal Inhabitants of the Town and County of Haverford-Weſt; preſented to his Majeſty by Brigadier Ferrers, in the Abſence of John Barlow, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Hambourg, Nov. 1. Letters from the Confederate Army in Pomerania give an Account, that the Kings of Denmark and Pruſſia were gone to Grypſwalde, to ſee the Troops deſigned for the Deſcent on the Iſland of Rugen imbark, which 'tis reported they are to do this Day, above 700 Veſſels being provided for that Service. The ſaid Troops conſiſt of 39 Squadrons and 24 Battalions. The Prince of Anhalt is to command them in chief; the Generals Dewitz and Wilken, the Lieutenant-Generals Count Danhoff and Baron Dorfling; the Major-Generals Juel, Boiſſet, Grumbkow, Prince of Wirtemberg, Hackborn, and Brigadier Sponeck are to command the firſt Line: The Lieutenant-Generals Schwertzel and Nulecau, the Major-Generals Bourgdorff, Prince of Heſſe Philipſthal, Borck, Watenau, and Brigadier Budde, are to command the ſecond Line. The Perſian Ambaſſador who was at the Court of France, is come hither from Copenhagen, deſigning to proceed by Sea to Petersbourg, and thence by Land to Iſpahan. On the 24th paſt arrived here M. Bourk, an Iriſh Papiſt, who is going to the King of Sweden at Stralſund, in the Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Spain. The Swediſh Fleet, conſiſting of 18 Men of War of the Line and 2 Frigates, was out at Sea a few Days ago, but our laſt Advices tell us that Fleet has been obliged to return to Harmo within 4 Leagues of Carlſcrona: The Daniſh Fleet has its Station between Moen and Steffens, to obſerve the Swedes and hinder their approaching the Coaſts of Pomerania and landing Troops there.

Edinburgh, Octob. 25. Letters from Inverary of the 22d Inſtant give an Account, that on the 20th a Detachment of the Rebels came in View of that Town, and continued there on the 22d. The Earl of Ilay, who is in that Place, has made ſuch Preparations for its Defence, that the Rebels will meet with a very warm Reception if they ſhould attack it, for which they had not made any Diſpoſition when the Letters came away. By an Expreſs come in this Morning from Stirling, we learn, that
